V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1-3	YES
	Claims		NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	1-3	YES
	Claims		NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-3	YES
	Claims		NO

2. Citations and explanations

Novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

This report refers to the following document cited in the search report; the same numbering will be used throughout the procedure:

D1: DE 12 15 496 B (GARTEMANN & HOLLMANN GMBH)
28 April 1966 (1966-04-28)

1. The invention defined in claim 1 meets the requirements of PCT Article 33(2) to (4) in respect of novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability.
2. Since none of the documents cited in the search report or acknowledged in the introductory part of the description indicates the features of independent claim 1 in their entirety, the subject matter of claim 1 is novel.
3. None of the documents cited in the search report suggests to a person skilled in the art that in a machine for producing cross bottom bags as per D1 the bottom laying device be configured as per the characterising part of claim 1. The feature whereby a glue transfer roller and a counterpressure roller are mutually offset in the direction in which the bags are conveyed results from a step that does not constitute a logical development of the cited prior art. The bottom laying device as per claim 1 therefore involves an inventive step.

4. The subject matter of claim 1 can be made and used and is therefore also considered industrially applicable.
5. Dependent claims 2 and 3 concern advantageous and non-obvious developments of the bottom laying device according to claim 1 and thus likewise meet the requirements of PCT Article 33(2) to (4) in respect of novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability.

Certain defects in the international application

6. The description does not indicate the closest prior art (PCT Rule 5.1(a)(ii)).
